WELCOME TO GNBC

The Ghana Nigeria Business Council (GNBC) is a non-profit, non-governmental and non-political organization with a wide and varied range of business interests in Ghana and Nigeria.

We seek to set the pace for others by fostering a great business relationship between our two nations, promoting the interests of our members and ensure that Policy Makers understand how their decisions affect business between the two major West African players.

At the Ghana Nigeria Business Council we seek to create opportunities that will add real economic value thereby playing a major role in the development aspirations of Ghana and Nigeria.

The GNBC is the only not-for-profit outfit which functions to aid and support trade between Ghana and Nigeria with high level contacts and relations in both countries. . Members will benefit from this prestige and will enjoy a range of services.

Mr Reginald Laryea

Welcome to the Ghana Nigeria Business Council (GNBC), an establishment which has been in existence for the past 5 years. We have revamped and grown to be able to provide the cutting edge services you require for your business.

At GNBC we value the strong partnership and relationship that Ghana and Nigeria has had over many years. Like family, we have had our rough and good times, as we pull together for a common good.
As an organisation, we aim to further facilitate relationships, grow industries and deepen market penetration for businesses and individuals alike with our events, news updates, tenders and business facilitation services.

We welcome you and look forward to you becoming a member!
